

Park Inn Radisson opens Westlands outlet

David Herbling

Park Inn at Westlands. --FILE

opened Radisson Blu Nairobi mid-2015.

design and architecture, and international standards," said Marc Descrozaille, area vice president in charge of Africa and Indian Ocean at Carlson Rezidor.

Brussels-based Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group has opened its second hotel in Nairobi dubbed Park Inn, which had suffered false starts blamed on building delays.

Park Inn Nairobi had initially planned to welcome its first guests in the fourth quarter of 2013, but the date was postponed several times.

Brothers Ronal and Rupen Samani through their firm AMS Properties Ltd are the owners of Park Inn Nairobi.

The mid-market hotel under the brand Park Inn is located near the Westlands bus stop. It adds 140 rooms to Nairobi's bed space.

"This landmark property will certainly set the bar very high for the midscale hotel brands in Africa, with its contemporary

Carlson Rezidor will operate the facility under a contract management.

The hospitality group

opened Radisson Blu Nairobi mid-2015.

design and architecture, and international standards," said Marc Descrozaille, area vice president in charge of Africa and Indian Ocean at Carlson Rezidor.

Brothers Ronal and Rupen Samani through their firm AMS Properties Ltd are the owners of Park Inn Nairobi.

The mid-market hotel under the brand Park Inn is located near the Westlands bus stop. It adds 140 rooms to Nairobi's bed space.

"This landmark property will certainly set the bar very high for the midscale hotel brands in Africa, with its contemporary

Carlson Rezidor will operate the facility under a contract management.

The hospitality group

opened Radisson Blu Nairobi mid-2015.

design and architecture, and international standards," said Marc Descrozaille, area vice president in charge of Africa and Indian Ocean at Carlson Rezidor.

Brothers Ronal and Rupen Samani through their firm AMS Properties Ltd are the owners of Park Inn Nairobi.

The mid-market hotel under the brand Park Inn is located near the Westlands bus stop. It adds 140 rooms to Nairobi's bed space.

"This landmark property will certainly set the bar very high for the midscale hotel brands in Africa, with its contemporary

Carlson Rezidor will operate the facility under a contract management.

The hospitality group

opened Radisson Blu Nairobi mid-2015.

design and architecture, and international standards," said Marc Descrozaille, area vice president in charge of Africa and Indian Ocean at Carlson Rezidor.

Brothers Ronal and Rupen Samani through their firm AMS Properties Ltd are the owners of Park Inn Nairobi.

The mid-market hotel under the brand Park Inn is located near the Westlands bus stop. It adds 140 rooms to Nairobi's bed space.

"This landmark property will certainly set the bar very high for the midscale hotel brands in Africa, with its contemporary

Carlson Rezidor will operate the facility under a contract management.

The hospitality group

opened Radisson Blu Nairobi mid-2015.

design and architecture, and international standards," said Marc Descrozaille, area vice president in charge of Africa and Indian Ocean at Carlson Rezidor.

Brothers Ronal and Rupen Samani through their firm AMS Properties Ltd are the owners of Park Inn Nairobi.

The mid-market hotel under the brand Park Inn is located near the Westlands bus stop. It adds 140 rooms to Nairobi's bed space.

"This landmark property will certainly set the bar very high for the midscale hotel brands in Africa, with its contemporary

Carlson Rezidor will operate the facility under a contract management.

The hospitality group

opened Radisson Blu Nairobi mid-2015.

design and architecture, and international standards," said Marc Descrozaille, area vice president in charge of Africa and Indian Ocean at Carlson Rezidor.

Brothers Ronal and Rupen Samani through their firm AMS Properties Ltd are the owners of Park Inn Nairobi.

The mid-market hotel under the brand Park Inn is located near the Westlands bus stop. It adds 140 rooms to Nairobi's bed space.

"This landmark property will certainly set the bar very high for the midscale hotel brands in Africa, with its contemporary

Carlson Rezidor will operate the facility under a contract management.

The hospitality group